FIELD TRIP REPORT

DEPARTMENT : GEOGRAPHY & Commerce

DATE : 28.06.2022

PLACE: HANGAL LAKES .

We left college in the morning for a field trip, this is the geography department field trip. We started trip by visiting a retail shops mechanical shops agriculture fields and other commercial area. Geography department head Shri M.B Naik was headed this trip. Onsite of Anekere lake, department head Shri M.B Naik has given total information regarding lake. This lake name was named as Anekere because of decades back elephants where used this lake for drinking water when they thirsty. Because of this reason lake is called as Anekere, Aane is a regional name of elephant. This lake is backbone of city people as well as agriculture farmers, Lake Water has been utilizing for different purposes, namely drinking purpose and agricultural purpose. This lake collects the water from rain and Dharma river, throughout the year we can see full of water it never gets dry. Buy this trip all the students of our college and department of geography students got good experience from this trip. It is great knowledgeable and valuable trip.
